Professional Development Workshop: Nice Girls Don't Get the Corner Office

More women than ever are part of today's workforce, but many are bypassed for promotions, ignored when expressing ideas, or not taken seriously.

If these situations sound familiar, you're not alone! But why does it happen?

Many learning experiences have socialized us to behave like girls instead of women. Often we continue to exhibit those behaviors into adulthood and the business world, sabotaging our career success and future growth.

This unique, interactive workshop will help you change that! Created from the national best-selling book Nice Girls Don't Get the Corner Office, you will:

- Uncover unconscious behaviors that may be negatively affecting your career advancement or business growth
- Learn and apply practical coaching tips to help correct those behaviors
- Walk away with leadership and communication skills for business and life
